Community Music

The TCC Orchestra, Symphonic Band, and Jazz Band are all full performing ensembles composed of both student and community musicians. Each group holds weekly rehearsals and performs at least once every quarter. The Orchestra utilizes strings, woodwinds, brass, and percussion instruments, while the Symphonic Band employs woodwinds, brass, and percussion. The Jazz Band, on the other hand, primarily uses saxophones, trombones, trumpets, piano, bass, and drum set, with the potential inclusion of other instruments depending on the selected repertoire.

Participants are expected to have fundamental skills in their instrument technique, be able to read standard music notation, and must audition prior to registration. For audition info, contact John Falskow: jfalskow@tacomacc.edu or call 253-460-4374.

Gig Harbor Campus

Stories
We Tell

Are you a writer looking to refine your craft or gain fresh perspectives?

Write in the Harbor is the perfect event for you! Join us for two days packed with inspiration and education for writers of all levels. You'll engage in interactive discussions, gain practical writing techniques, and connect with fellow writers who share your passion.

Previous attendees:

"I loved the passion and expertise of every speaker."

"A worthwhile way to spend the day."

"Everything exceeded my expectations."

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: SHAWN WONG

Shawn Wong is the author of the award-winning novel, Homebase and the novel, American Knees, a romantic comedy that was made into an acclaimed feature film. He is also the co-editor and editor of six Asian American and American multicultural literary anthologies including the pioneering anthology Aiiieeeee! An Anthology of Asian American Writers.

Wong is currently the Byron and Alice Lockwood Professor in the Humanities and Professor of English at the University of Washington. He has also taught numerous times at the UW Rome Center, because someone has to make the personal sacrifice to teach in Italy.
